THE VOTES ARE ALL IN.

Tuesday A Fine Day And Voters Were Out.

Few people can recollect a more glorious November day than last Tuesday and weather conditions were decidedly favorable for a large vote.

The campaign as has been noticed has been conducted on the still-hunt plan, both sides having done effective work at the several meetings of the registrars and the question on Tuesday was, can we get them to the polls?

The polls were opened at 6 o'clock a. m. and while there was no special rush during the day, there was a steady vote with the following result:

Correspondence and items of news are solicited from all readers of the Gazette. Every one knows of some interesting fact or happening that others would like to read about.

While we have an efficient corps of regular contributors, there is much of interest that in the nature of things, they cannot see. Your letter in your local paper and your own town will do much to aid in making the Gazette more bright and new.

ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT WEYMOUTH, MASS., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

FRIDAY, NOV. 10, 1899.

We congratulate our representatives-elect upon their handsome vote.

We acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the new song, "O. E. Hymn Book." The music and words are good, and will prove an acceptable addition to the Christian Endeavor music.

The election of a social-democratic in Rockland is a surprise, perhaps, but it only shows the latent strength of the new ideas among the people when they have a good candidate to vote for. The Rev. Mr. McCarthy was such a candidate and swept the town to the utter discomfort of the old-line candidates.

The town of Braintree is again without its own local representative. But the two representatives chosen on Tuesday, it should be remembered, are representatives of the 14th Norfolk District and not of the town of Weymouth, and therefore Braintree will be represented as fully as Weymouth in the next General Court.

That the people often exercise their divine right to vote as they please was again evidenced in the election of Tuesday. The party leaders evidently stood faithfully for a straight vote on the Republican ticket but the party was ineffective. We do not think there was any trading. Mr. Whelan and Mr. Hunt were popular candidates and got the votes of the people. That is the whole story. Mr. Hunt worked hard to have the Braintree republican candidate supported in Weymouth equally with himself but the people wanted Mr. Whelan and he voted for him. No one can gainsay the result of the people's preference. It is the verdict from which there is no appeal, at least until another year.

Dewey has again made an important capture. He has taken without using Uncle Sam's guns. We hope he will have that peace and quiet in his wedding life, that he so richly deserves.

Mr. Melan has, both times he has been a candidate, carried his own town of Braintree by a good vote. He can take comfort in that, even though the town of Weymouth has chosen her own sons in preference, and by the larger, has overwhelmed Braintree's choice.

England has, to use a homely phrase, bitten off all she wants to do in the Transvaal episode. Nevertheless she will undoubtedly, in the end, chew all she has bitten off, and conquer that brave people if she is let alone by other powers.

From "Mr. Dooley's opinions on the Transvaal" in his paper, "The Weekly," Mr. Dooley says: "An 'I' was Kruger, sure there'd been no war."

"What was he have done?" Mr. Dooley asked.

"I'd give him the vote," said Mr. Dooley. "But," he said, significantly, "I'd do it countin'."

Again it is demonstrated that a two-cent postage does not pay. The post office department is $6,000,000 short for the year just closed. Would it not be a good idea to put postage where it belongs and not compel the poor man who sends a letter but once or twice a year to pay for those who use the mails more frequently.

Political parties and political platforms are good as polar stars to guides in great and important national and state events, but it is clearly demonstrated at each recurring election that the voters who are more potent than parties and platforms, and that the individual voter is controlled more by likes and dislikes than he is by party ties.

MAMMOTH NEW STORE.

Durbin-Merrill Company to Open Tomorrow.

The great department store at Quincy will be opened to the public tomorrow (Nov. 11) and the people of Weymouth are cordially invited to call and see the advantages of having such a store in the community. The members of this firm are all men of experience. They know the demands of these suburban towns and they are able to meet them. They have filled this mammoth store with new and cheap goods and there is no longer need of going to the crowded streets of Boston. Only a few cents take you to the store. The public and business clerks will show you the rest. Watch the columns of this paper for news of the largains.

Reynolds Corps, No. 102.

The regular meeting of Reynolds' Relief Corps No. 102, will be held in G. A. Hall, Tuesday afternoon, November 14th. Speech and entertainment to be given. Com. John E. Gillman will be the guest of the evening.

A very fine programme has been arranged by East Weymouth ladies and will be assisted by Mrs. Lillie Crane Stoddard, vocalist.

Members of the corps are requested to bring paper.

D. R. Entertained.

Mrs. John Nelson of Shawmut street, East Weymouth, entertained Abigail Smith Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution at her home on Thursday evening. An excellent paper on "Women of the Revolution," was contributed by Mrs. Albert Avery and Mrs. Charles Clark read an appropriate poem. Miss Avery of Washington, and Miss Emma Bates gave several musical selections.

DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE.

Plant of Victor Metals and Foundry Company Visited by Fire.

Engineer Battles and Ex-Engineer F. O. Whitmarsh Badly Injured.

Shortly after one o'clock Saturday morning an alarm was pulled in from Box 26 of East Braintree and was followed several minutes later by a second alarm. The alarms were for a blaze at the plant of the Victor Metals and Foundry Company, which for a time threatened destruction to the entire plant. The East Braintree department was quickly upon the scene and by the time the departments from the other parts of the town arrived the fire was well under control, and after a fight of an hour, was extinguished. The flames were confined solely to the old portion of the plant, the new part being but slightly damaged.

During the progress of the fire, Engineer Battles fell into the smelting-pit, and ex-Engineer F. O. Whitmarsh in attempting to aid him was himself severely injured.

The fire estimates its loss in round numbers at about $100,000 on which there was $125,000 insurance.

Sale of Supper.

The North Weymouth Cemetery Circle will hold a sale and supper at Pilgrim Church vestry Wednesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 12th. Supper served at 6 o'clock, followed by an excellent entertainment. Tickets 25 cents. Pastry and fancy articles sold.

Art Exhibitions.

The collection of works of western and south-western scenery now on exhibition in the reading room of the Tufts Library, is one which is calling forth admiration from all who have seen it. The collection is the property of the Library Art Club and was secured through the efforts of the librarian. The exhibition will close Nov. 18, and all who have not yet seen them should do so at once.

To Brockton.

A pilgrimage to Brockton by Delphi Lodge No. 15, 2nd and Mountain Lodge No. 83, Knights of Pythias, will be in order for Nov. 21st, upon invitation of Damocles Lodge No. 16, of that place.

The Knights will have good accommodations at the Hotel, and will be accompanied by a special train leaving Brockton at 12:30 a. m., on the 22d. Fare round trip, from Braintree, 50 cents; Weymouth, 60 cents; Weymouth Heights, 65 cents.

Representatives of entertaining by this lodge is well known, and suffice it to say that this occasion will be no exception to the rule.

Church Notices.

Under this heading, the names of all the churches are given, and the services held at each, as they may vary from week to week. The names of the churches are given in the order in which they are held. The names of the churches are given in the order in which they are held.
